Second Sunday in Ordinary Time

As we the Church begin Ordinary Time, we reflect upon the Baptism of Jesus, and its significance in our own lives and communities. The Gospel of John does not narrate the Baptism like the other Gospels. Instead, John the Baptist gives testimony, emphasizing that Jesus has received the Holy Spirit. Jesus will go on to baptize with this same Spirit, as he did immediately after his resurrection (John 20). What might this mean for us, who share in this same Baptism? Today's reading from Isaiah suggests that we are to be a "light to the nations," a people proclaiming and sharing God's love. Paul's greeting to the church in Corinth reminds us that we are simultaneously God's sanctified people and yet continually called to become holy. Baptism begins our journey, where we know the Spirit dwells within, and the same Spirit summons us to full maturity in Christ.

Segundo Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

Al comenzar el Tiempo Ordinario, la Iglesia reflexiona sobre el Bautismo de Jesús y su significado en nuestras vidas y comunidades. El Evangelio de Juan no narra el Bautismo como los demás Evangelios. En su lugar, Juan el Bautista da testimonio, subrayando que Jesús ha recibido el Espíritu Santo. Jesús seguirá bautizando con este mismo Espíritu, como hizo inmediatamente después de su resurrección (Juan 20). ¿Qué puede significar esto para nosotros, que compartimos este mismo bautismo? La lectura de hoy de Isaías sugiere que debemos ser una "luz para las naciones", un pueblo que proclame y comparta el amor de Dios. El saludo de Pablo a la iglesia de Corinto nos recuerda que, al mismo tiempo, somos el pueblo santificado de Dios y, sin embargo, estamos continuamente llamados a ser santos. El bautismo inicia nuestro camino, en el que sabemos que el Espíritu habita en nuestro interior, y el mismo Espíritu nos convoca a la plena madurez en Cristo.
